Hi, everyone. I'm Phong Le, CEO of Strategy. This is a message to our STRC shareholders. First of all, thanks for being on this journey with us to launch a brand new innovation in the financial markets backed by Bitcoin called Digital Credit. Today, I'm asking you to all vote on a proposal to improve STRC to increase the dividend frequency from once a month to twice a month. Nothing else would change. This should improve STRC because it'll lead to increased price stability and liquidity and the changes should also help our shareholders and allow you to be paid more frequently and reinvest those dividends more frequently.

The deadline to vote is 11:59PM ET on June 7th. Our shareholder meeting to ratify this vote is the following day, on June 8th. And there's a few different ways you can vote. You can vote via your broker like Charles Schwab or Fidelity, by going to their website or calling them. Or you can call directly our Proxy Advisors Alliance at 1-855-206-1380. If you want more information on the proposal and how to vote, you can go to our website www.strategy.com.

Thank you, all, for looking at our proposal and thank you, all, for being shareholders of STRC.

The last part of my presentation will be, what are we doing to improve [STRC]. Ultimately, we're an innovation company. We're a product company. Michael Saylor, our chairman, I'm an engineer at heart and by training. And so we're going to make the product better and better. We currently have an active shareholder proposal out. Our shareholder meeting is June 8, so coming up pretty soon, to change the dividend from monthly, paid once a month, to semi-monthly, paying twice a month. It's really just better for the ultimate shareholders for Stretch to be paid twice. It'll also dampen the cyclicalities, drive liquidity, stabilize the price further. What is this? We're just increasing the frequency two-x, same yield. Effectively, we're moving an octave higher, same product, twice as fast.

And the last thing I'll state is we are currently one of very few companies that offer, one of very few prefs that offer monthly dividends. We would be the only pref that offers semi-monthly dividend. And if you look at the universe of all dividend paying instruments, not just prefs, but equities, there's about 24,000 that pay quarterly dividends, 176 that pay monthly, of which we are one. And we will be the only security in the US that pays semi-monthly dividends.
