

- Pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) By and Between the Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (PSE) and the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on the Listing of the PSE Shares on the PSE Trading Board, the Commission has caused the immediate posting of the foregoing disclosure/s in the PSE Electronic Disclosure Generation Technology System (PSE EDGE). This directive is being issued primarily for the purpose of ensuring the timely disclosure of information relating to PSE as a listed company and should not be construed as an approval by the Commission of the item/s being disclosed nor of any of the acts done by the PSE or it intends to do in relation to this disclosure. The PSE shall remain responsible for complying with the other requirements as mandated in the Securities Regulation Code (SRC) and other relevant laws and their respective rules and regulations. This approval is for the purpose of ensuring the immediate posting of the disclosure. Nothing herein precludes the Commission as the statutory regulator of the PSE as a registered exchange, as Self-Regulatory Organization and as an issuer of registered securities, to seek further clarification and/or information and to take appropriate action on the matter, including the imposition of penalty in case of violation of the SRC and its Implementing Rules and Regulations. Finally, the Commission, acting as the Exchange under the MOU, may also impose penalty in case of violation of the relevant PSE Rules.

I. BUSINESS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

Item 1. Business

Background

The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (the “PSE”) was incorporated on July 14, 1992 as a non-stock corporation and later became a stock corporation on August 3, 2001. On December 15, 2003, pursuant to the demutualization mandate of Republic Act No. 8799, or the Securities Regulation Code (SRC), the PSE’s outstanding capital stock was listed by way of introduction.

Description of Registrant

The PSE is the only stock exchange that operates and regulates the Philippine equities market in the Philippines with the objective of maintaining efficiency, fairness, and transparency. The PSE currently offers a comprehensive end-to-end roster of services which include listing, trading, market data, clearing, and settlement. The PSE has a diversified range of products in the form of shares of stock, depositary receipts, company warrants securities, Exchange Traded Fund (ETF), Dollar Denominated Securities (DDS), and Real Estate Investment Trust (REITs). It also has technology-based services that are available in both website and mobile application formats for accessibility of disclosure information (PSE EDGE), IPO subscription by retail investors (PSE EASy), online trading (PSETradex), and market data for retail investors (PSE EQUIP).

The PSE’s revenues are primarily derived from listing-related and trading-related fees. The PSE charges listing fees for initial public offerings and additional listings, and for annual listing maintenance. On the other hand, trading revenues are primarily comprised of transaction fees, subscription fees, and service fees related to clearing and settlement. Other sources of revenue are membership, data feed, and miscellaneous fees.

Description of Subsidiaries and Affiliates

The Securities Clearing Corporation of the Philippines (SCCP) is a wholly owned subsidiary organized primarily as a clearing and settlement agency for SCCP-eligible trades executed through the facilities of the PSE. SCCP is responsible for: (a) synchronizing the settlement of funds for transactions of clearing members and the transfer of securities through Delivery versus Payment (DVP) clearing; (b) the administration of the Clearing and Trade Guaranty Fund (CTGF) and guaranteeing the settlement of trades through the implementation of its Fails Management System in the event of a Trading Participant’s default; and (c) performance of Risk Management and Monitoring to ensure final and irrevocable settlement.

The Capital Markets Integrity Corporation (CMIC) is also a wholly owned subsidiary. It functions as the independent audit, surveillance, and compliance unit of the PSE, having taken over the functions of the former Market Regulation Division of the PSE. CMIC operates to ensure the integrity of the capital market and has jurisdiction to investigate all violations of the SRC and CMIC Rules by Trading Participants and investigate trading-related irregularities and unusual trading activities committed by Issuers. The SEC granted CMIC its authority to operate as the independent audit, surveillance, and compliance unit of the PSE with provisional self-regulatory organization (SRO) status on February 2, 2012.

The PSE is also the majority shareholder of the Philippine Dealing System Holdings Corporation (PDSHC), a holding company that owns the Philippine Dealing & Exchange Corporation (PDEX), otherwise known as the Fixed Income Exchange (FIE), and the Philippine Depository & Trust Corp. (PDTC). As of February 4, 2026, the PSE beneficially owns 5.91 million shares, or 94.55%, of all of the issued and outstanding shares of PDSHC.

In April 2019, the PSE incorporated Premier Software Enterprise, Inc. (Premier), a separate IT subsidiary, to enable the PSE to meet the growing demand for technology services related to its various initiatives. Premier offers software development services focused on building innovative trading solutions and servicing the technology needs of the PSE and its stakeholders. The PSE wholly owns Premier.

In June 2024, SEC approved the incorporation of PSE Realty, Inc. ("PSE Realty"), a wholly owned subsidiary of PSE formed to own and manage the real estate assets of PSE, including the office units in the PSE Plaza along Ayala Avenue, Makati City.

Item 2. Properties

The PSE owns office units at the PSE Tower, Bonifacio Global City, which is the PSE's current headquarters and offices.

The PSE has the following intellectual property rights:

Item 3. Legal Proceedings

During the past five (5) years and until the present, the PSE, its directors, and executive officers in their official capacities have not been involved in any other legal proceedings that will have a material adverse effect on the PSE's operations or financial condition except the following:

Philippine Association of Securities Brokers and Dealers, Inc. (PASBDI), Ma. Vivian Yuchengco, Ismael G. Cruz, Nestor S. Aguila and Marita A. Limlingan vs. PSE, PSE NOMELEC and SEC

[Filed with the Court of Appeals as CA G.R. SP No. 103548]

This is an appeal filed by the SEC assailing the Decision dated April 23, 2014 of the Regional Trial Court of Pasig City, Branch 159 which granted PASBDI, et al.'s petition in Civil Case No. 10-139 and permanently enjoined the SEC, the PSE, and PSE Nomelec from imposing any limitation or restriction on the right of PASBDI and the individual petitioners to vote their entire shareholdings and declared permanent the writs of preliminary injunction.

On January 23, 2019, the Court of Appeals denied the appeal and affirmed the decision of RTC-159, Pasig City.

The SEC filed a Petition for Review on Certiorari with the Supreme Court docketed as G.R. No. 244462, but the PSE was not impleaded as a party.

SEC vs. Hon. Bonifacio, Philippine Association of Securities Brokers and Dealers, Inc. (PASBDI), Ma. Vivian Yuchengco, Ismael G. Cruz, Nestor S. Aguila and Marita A. Limlingan, PSE, PSE NOMELEC

[Filed with the Supreme Court as G.R. No. 198425]

This is a Petition for Review on Certiorari and Prohibition filed by the SEC. It seeks to reverse the Decision dated 11 April 2011 of the Court of Appeals which dismissed the SEC's petition filed with the Court of Appeals and affirmed the issuance of a writ of preliminary injunction by the Regional Trial Court of Pasig City, Branch 159 in Civil Case No. 10-139. The writ of preliminary injunction issued by the trial court enjoined the SEC, the PSE, and PSE Nomelec from imposing any limitation or restriction on the right of PASBDI and the individual petitioners to vote their entire shareholdings and declared permanent the writs of preliminary injunction.

SEC vs. Hon. Bonifacio, Philippine Association of Securities Brokers and Dealers, Inc. (PASBDI), Ma. Vivian Yuchengco, Ismael G. Cruz, Nestor S. Aguila and Marita A. Limlingan, PSE, PSE NOMELEC

[Filed with the Supreme Court as G.R. No. 201174]

This is a Petition for Certiorari (with application for TRO and/or writ of preliminary injunction) filed by the SEC directly with the Supreme Court, seeking the reversal and nullification of the Orders dated May 5, 2011 and February 8, 2012 of the RTC-159, Pasig City in Civil Case No. 10-139. The SEC also prayed for an order dismissing PASBDI's and the individual petitioners' petition for injunction in the trial court for lack of jurisdiction.

Consolidated Petitions

On January 30, 2024, the Supreme Court issued a Decision on the three consolidated Petitions above. The Petition for Review on Certiorari in G.R. No. 198425 was partly granted. The 11 April 2011 Decision of the Court of Appeals was reversed insofar as it grants the writ of preliminary injunction against the SEC, but the grant of the writ of preliminary injunction against the PSE and PSE NOMELEC was affirmed.

The Petition for Certiorari in G.R. No. 201174 was also granted. The May 5, 2011 Order granting the Urgent Motion for Issuance of a Writ of Preliminary Injunction against the SEC, the PSE, and PSE NOMELEC were reversed.

The Petition for Review on Certiorari in G. R. No. 244462 was partly granted. The January 23, 2019 Decision of the Court of Appeals insofar as it grants the petition for writ of preliminary injunction against the SEC, the PSE, and PSE NOMELEC with regard to Rule 2 of the 2011 NOMELEC Rules was reversed. However, the grant of writ of preliminary injunction against the PSE and PSE NOMELEC with regard to Rule 2 of the 2010 NOMELEC Rules was affirmed.

DW Capital, Inc. vs. The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc.

[Filed with the Court of Appeals as CA-G.R. No. 153973]

This is a Petition for Review filed by DW Capital, Inc. ("DWCI"), seeking to reverse and set aside the December 5, 2017 Order of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") which directed the PSE to take over the operations of DWCI ("Take-over Order").

In a Decision promulgated on October 8, 2018, the Court of Appeals denied the Petition and affirmed the Take-over Order issued by the SEC. DWCI filed a Motion for Reconsideration, which was likewise denied by the Court of Appeals in a Resolution dated February 22, 2019. In the Court of Appeals' Resolution dated July 4, 2019, the Court ruled that the October 8, 2018 Decision had attained finality and directed the Clerk of Court to issue the corresponding Entry of Judgment.

DW Capital, Inc. vs. Securities and Exchange Commission, et al.

[Pending with the Supreme Court as G.R. No. 245845]

On June 5, 2023, the PSE received notice that DWCI filed a Petition for Review with the Supreme Court. The case remains pending.

The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. vs.
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

[CTA Case No. 10781]

The PSE filed a Petition for Review with the Court of Tax Appeals (“CTA”) to seek cancellation of the assessments for deficiency income tax, VAT, expanded withholding tax, final withholding tax, and miscellaneous charges, in the total amount of ₱51,166,891.65, inclusive of increments, for the period covering January 1, 2016 to December 31, 2016.

On July 4, 2025, the CTA Third Division granted the PSE’s Petition for Review and declared the deficiency tax assessments void. On January 23, 2026, the PSE, through counsel, received a copy of BIR’s Petition for Review with the CTA En Banc. The PSE filed its comment on February 26, 2026. The petition remains pending.

The Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. vs.
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

[CTA Case No. 11195]

This is a Petition for Review with the Court of Tax Appeals (“CTA”) to seek cancellation of assessments for alleged deficiencies in taxes for the calendar year 2017, including income tax, VAT, expanded withholding tax, withholding tax on compensation, fringe benefit tax, DST, final withholding tax, final VAT, and other percentage taxes, and compromise penalty in the total amount of ₱189,200,854.63, inclusive of interests.

The parties have presented their respective witnesses and filed Formal Offer of Evidence. The case remains pending.

Dividend Policy

The PSE adopts a policy for the declaration of regular cash dividend out of the unrestricted retained earnings equivalent to fifty percent (50%) of the PSE's audited net income paid out twice a year. However, the PSE can also declare special dividends, which it has done so for the past few years, in addition to the regular dividend policy. The declaration of regular and special dividends is dependent on the cash flow, business plan, and financial condition of the PSE.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations

2025 vs. 2024

For a better appreciation of the comparative analysis of the PSE Group's results of operations for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, it should be noted that the results of operations of PDS Holdings Corporation (PDSHC) were consolidated into PSE's income statement only beginning in 2025. While PSE acquired a 53.34% majority equity interest in PDSHC as of December 31, 2024, only the balance sheet accounts of PDSHC were consolidated into PSE's statement of financial position as of that date. Accordingly, the consolidated income statement for 2024 reflects only the results of operations of PSE and its subsidiaries: SCCP, CMIC, PSEi, and PRI.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the consolidated operating revenues amounted to ₱2,842.60 million, 103.32% or ₱1,444.51 million higher than the 2024 level. The following describe the movements of the revenue items that account for such increase:

- Listing-related fees, which comprised 26.89% of operating revenues, increased by ₱217.55 million or by 39.77% in 2025 primarily due to 51.98% or ₱130.99 million higher annual listing maintenance fees in view of the increase in its upper limit from ₱2.0 million to ₱3.5 million and the consolidation of listing fees and listing maintenance fees of PDSHC amounting to ₱9.38 million and ₱21.92 million, respectively.
- Revenue from trading-related fees, which made up 33.60% of operating revenues, went up by ₱515.88 million equivalent to 117.45%. This was mainly brought about by the consolidation of the transaction fees from two subsidiaries of PDSHC – Philippine Dealing & Exchange Corp. (PDEX) and Philippine Depository & Trust Corp. (PDTC) totaling ₱447.96 million. PSE transaction fees likewise increased by 19.12% or ₱28.59 million due to a similar percentage rise in total turnover value by ₱285.86 billion, from last year's ₱1,494.90 billion (an average daily of ₱6.10 billion) to ₱1,780.77 billion (an average daily of ₱7.33 billion). In addition, market data revenue was higher by 11.51% or ₱23.13 million due to back charges of variable fees collected and recognized in 2025.
- Depository-related fees of ₱714.36 million (25.13% of operating revenues) consisted of depository securities account fees registry-maintenance fees charged by PDTC.
- Service fees of ₱317.99 million which made up 11.19% of operating revenues pertained to clearing and settlement fees charged by SCCP. The account went up by ₱51.05 million or 19.12% due to a similar percentage increase in turnover value.
- Other revenues was lower by ₱54.32 million or 37.48% because of lower fines and penalties collected during the period for violation of disclosure and trading rules of the Exchange.

Total expenses (cost of services and administrative expenses) of the Company increased by 62.63% to ₱1,401.31 million from ₱861.67 million in 2024. The following were the significant changes in expense items:

- compensation and other related staff costs, 31.29% of total expenses, went up by 66.45% amounting to ₱175.05 million mainly due to the consolidation of PDSHC's manpower cost of ₱147.43 million;
- depreciation expenses, 19.24% of total expenses, went up by 19.15% or by ₱43.34 million. The increase was mainly due to the addition of PDSHC's depreciation expense amounting to ₱74.82 million, partially offset by the lower depreciation of PSE's property and equipment primarily that of the trading system;
- repairs and maintenance, 18.68% of total expenses, went up by ₱106.82 million or by 68.91% mainly because of the inclusion of PDHSC's account amounting to ₱97.60 million and upgrade of PSE's firewall system;
- professional fees, 11.38% of total expenses, went up by ₱64.16 million or by 67.30% due to the addition of PDSHC's consultancy fees amounting to ₱80.53 million, offset by the lower outsourced service fees for CMIC's audit and compliance;
- taxes and licenses, 6.22% of total expenses, went up by 363.89% equivalent to ₱68.32 million primarily due to PDSHC's expenses amounting ₱76.01 million, partially offset by PSE's lower documentary stamp taxes;
- occupancy costs, which accounted for 3.92% of total expenses, increased by 11.55% or by ₱5.68 million, mainly due to the consolidation of PDSHC's expenses amounting to ₱2.11 million, as well as higher condominium dues and utilities of PSE and SCCP totaling ₱3.57 million;
- outside services pertained to registry mailing services, or the cost of mailing official notices and documents to investors. This account contributed ₱28.20 million, 2.01% of total expenses;
- office supplies went up by 73.10% or by ₱1.81 million due to the addition of PDSHC's expense of ₱1.91 million;
- trading participants' development was higher by ₱1.94 million or by 63.67% mainly due to higher costs incurred for the annual stockholders' meeting and golf tournament;
- market development expenses went up by 56.91% or by ₱4.87 million mainly because of costs incurred in hosting an investor's forum and stock trading game;
- meetings and conferences increased by ₱0.22 million or by 21.35% on account of PSE's higher expenses for meals during board and committee meetings;
- public relations expenses went up by ₱1.04 million or by 16.12% mainly due to higher expenses for representation, advertisements and the hosting of the ASEAN CEO's meeting;
- travel and transportation expenses decreased by 15.34% amounting to ₱0.65 million, primarily due to PSE's lower foreign travel by ₱1.38 million, partially offset by the addition of PDHSC's expense amounting to ₱0.77 million.
- other expenses went up by 412.03% totaling ₱38.15 million, mainly due to the addition of PDSHC's miscellaneous expenses amounting to ₱35.20 million.

Other income amounted to ₱166.20 million, reflecting an 80.13% decrease or ₱670.12 million compared to last year's ₱836.32 million mainly because of the following:

- ₱462.86 million gain on remeasurement of the previously held 20.98% equity interest in PDSHC (formerly accounted for as an investment in an associate) at acquisition-date fair value was recognized in 2024 following the business combination;
- ₱98.56 million lower equity share in the net income of PDSHC, corresponding to the Group's 20.98% equity interest. Following the acquisition of additional ownership interests, PDSHC ceased to be accounted for as an associate in 2025, and the Group no longer recognized equity share in its net income;
- ₱56.81 million or 1,290.95% higher interest expense, mainly related to the term loans obtained during the period to partially finance the acquisition of PDSHC shares; and
- ₱43.63 million or 200.82% decline in the fair value of financial assets on account of the volatility in domestic equity markets.

The above net changes resulted to a net income after tax amounting to ₱1,223.99 million, higher by 1.39% equivalent to ₱16.77 million from previous year's net income of ₱1,207.22 million.

Total assets as of December 31, 2025 amounted to ₱8,750.90 million, higher by 2.50% or ₱213.34 million from its previous year's level. The analyses of its components follow:

Cash and cash equivalents amounted to ₱1,352.00 million, representing 15.45% of total assets, decreased by 28.53% or ₱539.70 million. This decrease was primarily caused by the utilization of cash to finance capital expenditures, partially to finance the acquisition of PDSHC shares and to pay interest expenses on the term loans.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss of ₱1,259.56 million, 14.38% of total assets and 36.43% of total investments, increased by ₱29.42 million or 2.39%. The account pertained to the investment of PSE in equity funds and US dollar-denominated bonds managed by external professional fund managers under purely discretionary mandates and PDSHC's investment in money market funds and government securities. The account increased mainly because of the reinvestment of accumulated income of the funds.

Short-term financial assets at FVOCI of ₱228.57 million, 2.61% of total assets and 6.62% of total investments, pertained to government securities and corporate bonds with interest rates ranging from 3.325% to 5.276% which will mature within 2026.

Short-term financial assets at amortized cost of ₱1,140.47 million, 13.03% of total assets and 33.01% of total investments, pertained to the investments in government securities of PDSHC that earn effective interest rate ranging from 3.91% to 5.93%.

Short-term investments of ₱127.92 million pertained to time deposits with over 90 days tenor and interest rates ranging from 3.5% to 5.15%.

Receivables increased by 23.32% or ₱60.28 million primarily due to higher outstanding billings from PDEX participants following increased fixed income trading volume, as well as higher transaction fees from regular and block sales of the PSE driven by higher total turnover value.

Other current assets went up by ₱234.54 million or 85.90% mainly due to the ₱294 million that was withheld by the Exchange from the proceeds of the sale of PDSHC shares by the Bankers Association of the Philippines as a consideration for the latter's purchase of PDEX shares. The funds will be held in trust by the Exchange until fulfillment of all closing conditions for the sale and purchase of PDEX shares, including SEC's approval.

Long-term financial assets at FVOCI of ₱695.74 million, 7.95% of total assets and 20.14% of total investments, consisted of investments in retail treasury bonds, fixed income treasury notes, and corporate bonds which will mature starting 2027 until 2032 with interest rates ranging from 4.135% to 8.008%.

Long-term financial assets at amortized cost of ₱3.38 million, 0.04% of total assets and 0.10% of total investments, pertained to the corporate debt securities that earn an interest rate of 4% per annum.

Right-of-use assets of ₱85.05 million pertained to the unamortized portion of the present values of the lease contracts for the data recovery sites of the Parent Company and office spaces of Premier Software Enterprise, Inc. and PDS Holdings Corporation in compliance with PFRS 16 on Leases. The assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their respective lease terms. The account decreased by ₱15.88 million or 15.73% mainly due to depreciation.

Pension asset amounting to ₱61.83 million, as of December 31, 2025, pertained to the fair value of the assets of the Parent Company's retirement plan, net of the present value of retirement obligation and asset ceiling under Amended PAS 19(R). The assets are being held by a trustee bank pursuant to a trust agreement dated August 10, 2011. The Parent Company has a funded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan while SCCP has an unfunded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan covering all regular employees. The benefits are accumulated based on years of service and compensation per year of credited service. CMIC, on the other hand, does not have an established retirement fund and only conforms to the minimum regulatory benefit under the Retirement Pay Law (Republic Act No. 7641) which is of the defined benefit type and provides a retirement benefit equal to 22.5 days' Pay for every year of credited service. In addition, PDSHC has a funded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan covering substantially all of its officers and regular employees. The Group does not have transactions with its retirement plan other than the normal contributions and benefits payment coming from the retirement plan. Pension liability amounted to ₱52.56 million and ₱54.28 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively, or a decrease of 3.16% or ₱1.72 million.

Goodwill amounting to ₱1,230.90 million, or 14.07% of total assets, pertained to the difference between the total identifiable net assets of PDSHC of ₱1,442.42 million and the sum of ₱1,213.52 million paid for the 32.36% ownership-shares acquired by PSE, ₱673.03 million proportionate share of 46.66% non-controlling interest and ₱786.76 million PSE previously held interest of 20.98% at acquisition-date fair values. The goodwill of ₱1,230.90 million comprises the value of expected synergies arising from the acquisition, which is entirely allocated to the PDSHC group.

Deferred tax assets of ₱317.57 million, increased by 5.97% or ₱17.89 million because of the deferred fines and penalties and temporary differences arising from the depreciation of the right-of-use assets.

Other noncurrent assets amounted to ₱126.92 million, representing an increase of 16.24% or ₱17.73 million. The increase was mainly attributable to the ₱35.25 million receivable from Equityworld Securities, Inc. (ESI), representing the total redemption price and incidental expenses incurred by CMIC in relation to the petition for consignment filed with the Regional Trial Court of Makati on behalf of ESI for certain foreclosed condominium units. The amount is expected to be recovered once the property is liquidated through sale or upon final resolution of the case. This action was undertaken by CMIC in accordance with the SEC take-over order over the operations of ESI. The increase was partially offset by the decline in software and system development costs due to depreciation.

Current liabilities, which accounted for 14.35% of total liabilities and stockholders' equity, went up by ₱472.56 million or by 60.35% from ₱783.05 million to ₱1,255.61 million. Of the latter amount, 59.24% or ₱743.81 million represented trade and other payables while 20.45% or ₱256.82 million represented the current portions of contract liabilities and loans payable.

Noncurrent liabilities amounted to ₱1,978.55 million, an increase of 73.55% or ₱838.54 million, mainly because of the availment of loans to finance the acquisition of additional shares in PDSHC. Of the total noncurrent liabilities, ₱1,055.30 million or 53.34% pertained to contract liabilities while ₱805.32 million or 40.70% pertained to loans payable.

The Exchange remained liquid with a working capital of ₱3,678.27 million or a current ratio of 3.93:1.

Total retained earnings amounted to ₱2,937.33 million. This included the net income of ₱1,223.99 million, donated capital of ₱221.60 million and appropriated retained earnings of ₱151.40 million.

Capital Expenditures

For the year 2025, the Company's capital expenditures totaled ₱204.23 million, with ₱120.68 million spent on trading system equipment, ₱63.85 million on computer software and hardware, and ₱16.45 million on furniture, communication and other equipment.

Liquidity

The Company has been paying its trade payables within the stated trade terms. As of December 31, 2025, the Exchange had outstanding loan obligations obtained to finance the acquisition of additional shares in PDSHC. The loan agreements provide certain restrictions and requirements principally with respect to maintenance of required financial ratios such as total debt-to-equity ratio of not more than 1-3x, debt service coverage ratio of not less than 1.2-1.5x and current ratio of more than 1x. The Exchange has complied with all of its debt covenants as at December 31, 2025.

2024 vs. 2023

For the year ended December 31, 2024, operating revenues amounted to ₱1,398.09 million, 0.26% or ₱3.67 million lower than the 2023 level.

- Listing-related fees, which comprised 39.12% of operating revenues, decreased by ₱29.48 million or 5.11% in 2024 primarily due to reduction by 6.29% or ₱19.77 million lower listing fees. This included the amortized portion of prior year's deferred listing fees, three IPOs, 59 additional listings, forfeited and delisting fees during the period.
- Revenue from trading-related fees, which made up 31.42% of operating revenues, went up by ₱28.44 million or by 6.92%. This was brought about by the increase in transaction fees from regular and block sales due to higher total turnover value by 1.36% totaling ₱20.12 billion, from last year's ₱1,475 billion (an average daily of ₱6.09 billion) to ₱1,495 billion (an average daily of ₱6.10 billion). In addition, market data revenue was likewise higher by 9.71% amounting to ₱17.79 million due to index licensing fees collected pursuant to newly signed agreements. This was further supplemented by the 10.78% or ₱8.64 million higher subscription fees for access to the trading system and RSA security tokens.
- Service fees, 19.09% of operating revenues, went up as well by ₱3.59 million or by 1.36% due to a similar percentage increase in turnover value.
- Other income was lower by ₱5.73 million or by 3.80% because of lower fines and penalties collected from listed companies during the period for violation of disclosure and trading rules of the Exchange.

Total expenses (cost of services and administrative expenses) of the Company increased by 14.85% to ₱861.67 million from ₱750.22 million in 2023. The following were the significant changes in expense items:

- compensation and other related staff costs, 30.57% of total expenses, went up by 3.51% or ₱8.94 million mainly due to the filling-up in 2024 of vacancies for managerial positions;
- depreciation expenses, 26.27% of total expenses, went up by 46.87% or by ₱72.23 million. The increase was mainly due to the depreciation of PSE's front-end system and computer software and hardware and SCCP's clearing and settlement system.
- repairs and maintenance, 17.99% of total expenses, went up by ₱10.32 million or by 7.14% on account of higher maintenance costs of PSE's front-end system and back office computer software and SCCP's computer software and hardware;
- professional fees, 11.06% of total expenses, went up by ₱10 million or by 11.72% due to the consultancy fees related to the market design of the proposed trading engine and CMIC's cost of assurance transformation services, tax lawyer's fee and digital forensics audit;
- occupancy costs, 5.71% of total expenses, was higher by 9.72% or by ₱4.36 million mainly due to increase cost of utilities and condominium dues;
- taxes and licenses, 2.18% of total expenses, went up by 137.61% equivalent to ₱10.87 million primarily due to documentary stamp tax associated with the acquisition of PDSHC;

- travel and transportation expenses went up by ₱1.26 million or by 42.57% mainly due to higher gasoline expenses for company vehicles and ₱0.92 million higher costs incurred for various foreign travels;
- public relations expenses went up by ₱1.89 million or by 41.62% mainly due to higher expenses for representation, club memberships and advertisements;
- trading participants' development was lower by ₱0.88 million or by 22.44% mainly due to lower Christmas celebration expenses;
- insurance expense was higher by ₱0.51 million or by 16.22% due to higher premiums for building insurance and director's liability insurance;
- communication expense was higher by ₱1.55 million or by 11.60% mainly due to additional registered domains and increase in rate of Bloomberg terminal;
- meetings and conferences increased by ₱0.07 million or by 7.55% on account of higher expenses incurred for meals during board and committee meetings;
- market development expenses went up by ₱0.54 million mainly because of expenses for business planning and data analytics for new products; and
- Other expenses went down by 52.63% totaling ₱10.29 million because of lower outsourced services for CMIC's audit and compliance functions.

Other income amounted to ₱836.32 million, reflecting a 166% increase or ₱521.95 million compared to last year's ₱314.37 million mainly because of the following: 1) ₱462.86 million gain from the remeasurement of a previously held 20.98% equity interest in PDSHC (formerly an investment in an associate) at acquisition-date fair value; 2) ₱26.02 million higher equity share in the net income of PDSHC prior to acquisition of an additional 32.36% of its outstanding shares; 3) ₱11.35 million or 109.39% improvement in fair value of the investments in equity funds and US dollar-denominated government and corporate bonds; and 4) ₱19.66 million higher foreign exchange translation gain in 2024.

The above net changes resulted to a net income after tax amounting to ₱1,207.22 million, higher by 57.54% or ₱440.91 million from previous year's net income of ₱766.31 million.

Total assets as of December 31, 2024 amounted to ₱8,537.56 million, higher by 19.52% or ₱1,394.28 million from its previous year's level. The analyses of its components follow:

Cash and cash equivalents amounted to ₱1,891.70 million, representing 22.16% of total assets, increased by 26.77% equivalent to ₱399.50 million. This increase was primarily driven by the inclusion of PDSHC (following the business combination on December 31, 2024) in the consolidated financial position, partially reduced by lower time deposit placements.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss of ₱1,229.14 million, 14.40% of total assets and 40.78% of total investments, increased by ₱171.15 million or by 16.18%. The account pertained to the equity funds and US dollar-denominated bonds managed by external professional fund managers under purely discretionary mandates and likewise included PDSHC's account amounting to ₱81.45 million.

Short-term financial assets at FVOCI of ₱195.85 million, 2.29% of total assets and 6.50% of total investments, pertained to government securities and corporate bonds with interest rates ranging from 2.375% to 6.25% which will mature within 2025.

Short-term financial assets at amortized cost of ₱675.76 million, 7.92% of total assets and 22.42% of total investments, pertained to the investments in government securities of PDSHC that earn effective interest rate ranging from 5.15% to 6.16%.

Short-term investments of ₱950.75 million in 2023 pertained to time deposits with over 90 days tenor and which already matured in the first quarter of 2024.

Receivables increased by 135.96% or by ₱148.95 million primarily by the addition of balances from PDSHC following the business combination.

Other current assets went up by ₱160.83 million equivalent to 143.34% mainly due to ₱109.83 million higher prepaid expenses mostly related to maintenance costs and inclusion of ₱60.65 million restricted cash and short-term investments arising from the business combination, as well as additions to prepaid expenses during period, mostly related to maintenance costs.

Long-term financial assets at FVOCI of ₱907.64 million, 10.63% of total assets and 30.11% of total investments, consisted of investments in retail treasury bonds, fixed income treasury notes, and corporate bonds which will mature starting 2026 until 2032 with interest rates ranging from 3.325% to 8.008%.

Long-term financial assets at amortized cost of ₱5.66 million, 0.07% of total assets and 0.19% of total investments, pertained to the corporate debt securities that earn an interest rate of 4%.

Property and equipment, 13.75% of total assets, went up by ₱17.49 million or by 1.51% primarily due to acquisitions resulting from the business combination and additions to front-end system, reduced by disposals and depreciation.

Right-of-use assets of ₱100.93 million pertained to the unamortized portion of the present values of the lease contracts for the data recovery sites of the Parent Company and office spaces of Premier Software Enterprise, Inc. and PDS Holdings Corporation in compliance with PFRS 16 on Leases. The assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over their respective lease terms. The account increased by ₱32.37 million or by 47.21% mainly due to the business combination.

Investment property of ₱128.34 million refers to the condominium units at Exchange Plaza, Ayala Triangle, Makati City. The Board authorized the Exchange's management to lease out the Exchange Plaza and engage, negotiate and discuss with prospective lessees the terms and conditions of the lease beneficial to the Exchange.

On June 18, 2024, the SEC approved the incorporation of PSE Realty, Inc. (PRI), where PSE subscribed to 9.58 million shares of PRI in exchange for the above-described property in Ayala Triangle valued at ₱958 million with a carrying value of ₱131 million. As of December 31, 2024, title to the property has not yet been transferred by PSE to PRI and correspondingly, PRI shares are not yet issued to PSE since the latter has not yet secured a Certificate Authorizing Registration from the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The transaction though has no impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Investment in an associate pertained to the 20.98% ownership-share in PDSHC. Following the acquisition of the additional 32.36% stake in PDHSC, the account amounting to ₱323.91 million was transferred to equity investment account in 2024.

Pension asset amounting to ₱57.69 million, as at December 31, 2024, pertained to the fair value of the assets of the Parent Company's retirement plan, net of the present value of retirement obligation and asset ceiling under Amended PAS 19(R). The assets are being held by a trustee bank pursuant to a trust agreement dated August 10, 2011. The Parent Company has a funded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan while SCCP has an unfunded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan covering all regular employees. The benefits are accumulated based on years of service and compensation per year of credited service. CMIC, on the other hand, does not have an established retirement fund and only conforms to the minimum regulatory benefit under the Retirement Pay Law (Republic Act No. 7641) which is of the defined benefit type and provides a retirement benefit equal to 22.5 days' Pay for every year of credited service. In addition, PDSHC has a funded noncontributory defined benefit retirement plan covering substantially all of its officers and regular employees. The Group does not have transactions with its retirement plan other than the normal contributions and benefits payment coming from the retirement plan. Pension liability amounted to ₱54.28 million and ₱25.54 million in 2024 and 2023, respectively, or an increase of 112.51% or ₱28.74 million.

Goodwill amounting to ₱1,230.90 million, 14.42% of total assets, pertained to the difference between the total identifiable net assets of PDSHC of ₱1,442.42 million and the sum of ₱1,213.52 million paid for the 32.36% ownership-shares acquired by PSE, ₱673.03 million proportionate share of 46.66% non-controlling interest and ₱786.76 million PSE previously held interest of 20.98% at acquisition-date fair values. The goodwill of ₱1,230.90 million comprises the value of expected synergies arising from the acquisition, which is entirely allocated to the PDSHC group.

Investment in an associate of ₱289.51 million in 2023 pertained to the 20.98% interest in PDSHC, a domestic corporation whose principal activity is to provide platform for the issuance, trading, dealing and exchange of fixed income securities and monetary instruments.

Deferred tax assets of ₱299.68 million, decreased by 1.65% amounting to ₱5.01 million because of lower contract liabilities.

Current liabilities, which accounted for 9.17% of total liabilities and stockholders' equity, went up by ₱132.42 million or by 20.35% from ₱650.64 million to ₱783.05 million. Of the latter amount, 54.90% or ₱429.87 million represented trade and other payables while 28.48% or ₱223.03 million represented the current portions of contract and lease liabilities.

Noncurrent liabilities of ₱1,140.01 million went up by 18.64% or by ₱179.12 million mainly because of the increase in contract and lease liabilities. Of the total noncurrent liabilities, ₱1,025.72 million or 89.97% pertained to contract liabilities while ₱60.02 million or 5.26% pertained to lease liabilities.

The Exchange remained liquid with a working capital of ₱3,740.94 million or a current ratio of 5.78:1.

Total retained earnings amounted to ₱2,595.78 million. This included the net income of ₱1,207.22 million, donated capital of ₱221.60 million and appropriated retained earnings of ₱151.40 million.

Capital Expenditures

For the year 2024, the Company's capital expenditures totaled ₱142.72 million, with ₱99.89 million spent on trading system equipment, ₱37.84 million on computer software and hardware, and ₱4.99 million on building improvements, furniture and other equipment.

Liquidity

The Company has been paying its trade payables within the stated trade terms. As of December 31, 2024, the Exchange had no note, loan, or other indebtedness or financing arrangement requiring the Company to make payments.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, operating revenues amounted to ₱2,842.60 million. The Company's operating revenues, sourced mainly from listing-related, trading-related, depository-related and service fees, increased by 103.32% or ₱1,444.51 million from the 2024 level following the consolidation of the income of PDSHC. Listing-related fees, which comprised 26.89% of operating revenues, included listing fees, annual listing maintenance fees and processing fees. This revenue source went up by ₱217.55 million or by 39.77%. Trading-related fees, which comprised 33.60% of operating revenues, increased by 117.45% or ₱515.88 million. This included transaction fees, subscription and data feed fees. Depository-related fees comprised of depository securities account fees and registry-maintenance fees from PDSHC. This revenue stream, which made up 25.13% of operating revenues, contributed ₱714.36 million to the overall increase.

Cost of services of ₱871.90 million, expenses which were directly related to the core operations of the PSE Group, included compensation and other related staff costs, repairs and maintenance, depreciation, taxes and licenses, outside services, professional fees, communication and amortization of computer software. This account rose by 99.13% or ₱434.05 million from previous year's ₱437.85 million. Administrative expenses of ₱529.41 million went up by ₱105.60 million or 24.92% compared to last year's ₱423.81 million. Combined total cost and expenses of ₱1,401.31 million posted an increase of ₱539.65 million or 62.63% from last year's ₱861.67 million. Compensation and other related staff expenses represented 31.29% of the total. On the other hand, depreciation, repairs and maintenance, professional fees and taxes and licenses made up 19.24%, 18.68%, 11.68% and 6.22% of total expenses, respectively. The overall increase was mainly due to the consolidation of the PDHSC balances.

Other income amounted to ₱166.20 million, a decrease of 80.13% or ₱670.12 million, from last year's ₱836.32 million. This decline was primarily due to the recognition in 2024 of a gain on remeasurement of previously held equity interest and equity share in net income of an associate. The decrease was further driven by the lower fair value of financial assets at FVTPL and interest expense on loans payable by ₱43.63 million and ₱56.81 million, respectively.

For the year ended December 31, 2024, operating revenues amounted to ₱1,398.09 million. The Company's operating revenues, sourced mainly from listing-related, trading-related and service fees, decreased by 0.26% or ₱3.67 million from the 2023 level. Listing-related fees, which comprised 39.12% of operating revenues, included listing fees, annual listing maintenance fees and processing fees. This revenue source went down by ₱29.48 million or 5.11%. Trading-related fees, which comprised 31.42% of operating revenues, increased by 6.92% or ₱28.44 million. This included transaction fees, subscription and data feed fees. Transaction fees from regular and block sales and SCCP service fees, which both went up by 1.36%, increased by ₱2.01 million and ₱3.59 million, respectively. Subscription likewise increased by 10.78% or ₱8.64 million while data feed also increased by 9.71% or ₱17.79 million.

Cost of services of ₱437.85 million, expenses which were directly related to the core operations of the PSE Group, included compensation and other related staff costs, depreciation, office expenses, communications, repairs and maintenance and amortization of computer software. This account rose by 9.53% or ₱38.11 million from previous year's ₱399.75 million. Administrative expenses of ₱423.81 million went up by ₱73.33 million or 20.92% compared to last year's ₱350.48 million. Combined total cost and expenses of ₱861.67 million posted an increase of ₱111.44 million or 14.85% from last year's ₱750.22 million. Compensation and other related staff expenses represented 30.57% of the total. On the other hand, depreciation, repairs and maintenance, professional fees and occupancy costs made up 26.27%, 17.99%, 11.06% and 5.71% of total expenses, respectively.

Other income in the amount of ₱836.32 million was higher by 166.03% or by ₱521.95 million from last year's ₱314.37 million mainly due to ₱462.86 million gain on remeasurement of previously held equity interest supplemented by higher equity share in net income of an associate and fair value of financial assets at FVTPL by ₱26.02 million and ₱11.35 million, respectively.

For the year ended December 31, 2023, operating revenues amounted to ₱1,401.26 million. The Company's operating revenues, sourced mainly from listing-related, trading-related and service fees, decreased by 8.83% or ₱135.77 million from the 2022 level. Listing-related fees, which comprised 41.14% of operating revenues, included listing fees, annual listing maintenance fees and processing fees. This revenue source went down by ₱97.56 million or 14.48%. Trading-related fees, which comprised 29.32% of operating revenues, decreased by 0.27% or by ₱1.13 million. This included transaction fees, subscription and data feed fees. Transaction fees from regular and block sales and SCCP service fees, which both went down by 17.55%, decreased by ₱31.39 million and ₱56.05 million, respectively. Subscription, on the other hand, increased by 117% or ₱43.17 million while data feed, on the other hand, decreased by 7% or ₱12.91 million.

Cost of services of ₱399.75 million, expenses which were directly related to the core operations of the PSE Group, included compensation and other related staff costs, depreciation, office expenses, communications, repairs and maintenance and amortization of computer software. This account rose by 18.52% or ₱62.46 million from previous year's ₱337.28 million. Administrative expenses of ₱350.48 million went down by ₱19.52 million or 5.28% compared to last year's ₱370 million. Combined total cost and expenses of ₱750.22 million posted an increase of ₱42.94 million or 6.07% from last year's ₱707.29 million. Compensation and other related staff expenses represented 33.92% of the total. On the other hand, depreciation, repairs and maintenance, professional fees and occupancy costs made up 20.54%, 19.29%, 11.37% and 5.98% of total expenses, respectively.

Other income amounting to ₱314.37 million went up by 125.22% or by ₱174.79 million from last year's ₱139.58 million largely due to ₱116.82 million higher fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL) and ₱93.43 million higher interest income in view of higher interest rates and additional placements during the year, partially reduced by the decrease in foreign exchange gain by ₱42.68 million.

PSE EQUIP

The PSE Equities Information Platform (EQUIP) is a data analytics tool designed to provide retail investors with comprehensive and reliable insights into the Philippine stock market.

In January 2025, PSE launched a subscription-based premium version of PSE EQUIP, offering more in-depth features intended for investors who rely on real-time market data and conduct detailed analysis of company fundamentals. The premium version includes key features such as real-time data on all PSE-listed securities, full market depth, unlimited access to company research reports, unlimited filters for the Stock Screener, and a complete list of market movers, active, gainers, and losers. Subscribers also gain access to TradingView Advanced Charts, past five years and six interim periods of company fundamentals, complete and customizable list for broker transactions, and the ability to add up to 50 stocks for watchlist and portfolio, providing deeper insights and allowing them to invest confidently.

As part of its efforts to promote financial literacy and encourage wider adoption of the platform, PSE conducted a series of investor-focused initiatives, including a webinar held in March 2025 in partnership with First Metro Securities Brokerage Corp. and TradingView Inc. These activities were aimed at enhancing investors' understanding of the Philippine equity market and familiarizing both existing and prospective users with the features and benefits of PSE EQUIP.

Following the launch of PSE EQUIP and the continued growth in its subscriber base, PSE remains committed to further enhancing the platform by improving its features and overall user experience. These initiatives include the ongoing revamp of the PSE EQUIP mobile application, alongside other system enhancements, to ensure users have access to reliable, timely, and high-quality market information.

Fostering Partnerships and Collaboration

38th ASEAN Exchanges CEOs Meeting

The PSE hosted the 38th ASEAN Exchanges CEOs Meeting last February 21, 2025 in Boracay Island, Philippines. The meeting focused on priority initiatives to promote the region as an asset class, highlighting its unique investment qualities. The meeting also tackled activities related to the creation of a unified ecosystem for sustainability solutions among publicly listed companies and capital market stakeholders.

Depository Receipts (DRs) were identified as a key investment product gaining traction in the ASEAN capital market. Early adopters, Singapore Exchange (SGX Group) and The Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) have demonstrated the program's success, prompting other ASEAN Exchanges to pursue similar initiatives and advance regulatory frameworks and stakeholder engagement.

The ASEAN-Interconnected Sustainability Ecosystem (ASEAN-ISE) Participating Exchanges issued a Request for Information (RFI) in February 2025, receiving strong industry interest. A joint briefing on the RFI by the ASEAN Exchanges in February saw participation from more than 120 representatives from 35 organizations, which included solution providers, credit bureaus, technology firms, information vendors, and consultants. The RFI seeks market insights to develop a unified ASEAN regional ecosystem which includes a Centralized Sustainability Data Infrastructure and a Digital Marketplace for Technology-based Sustainability Solutions.

MOA with Integrated Bar of the Philippines for Legal Aid

The PSE and the Integrated Bar of the Philippines (IBP) inked a Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) on May 6, 2025, for legal assistance to investors who need and qualify for legal services from IBP. The traditional legal aid will be provided to stock market investors endorsed by PSE to IBP and qualify based on IBP's means and merit test for free legal assistance. To be considered for endorsement, investors should have reported or made known to PSE their concerns and/or their lost investments were done through the PSE.

MOU with Taipei Exchange for Capital Market Initiatives

The PSE and Taipei Exchange (TPEX) signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) formalizing the partnership between the two bourses. The signing and bell ringing event was hosted by PSE on June 10, 2025. Among the potential areas for cooperation covered in the MOU are SME market incubation, ESG practices, and development of products such as indices, ETFs, and bond and equity derivatives.

Taiwan Exchanges Learning Sessions

Delegates from the PSE and its subsidiaries Philippine Dealing System Holdings Corp. (PDSHC) and Securities Clearing Corporation of the Philippines (SCCP), and the SEC, visited the Taiwan Stock Exchange (TWSE), TPEX and Taiwan Futures Exchange (TAIFEX) from December 15 to 18, 2025. The study visit provided the delegation an opportunity to learn about the product development initiatives and best practices of bourses in Taiwan.

TAIFEX shared information on derivatives contract lifecycle, trading, clearing and settlement, and market surveillance. The learning session with TPEX focused on bond product initiatives, market making and incubation board. Meanwhile, TWSE shared practical applications for Artificial Intelligence, alongside developments in structured warrants, securities borrowing and lending, market making, and extensible Business Reporting Language (XBRL).

Listing Engagement and Assistance Program

The PSE continued to expand the number of companies that are part of its Listing Engagement and Assistance Program (LEAP), a free handholding program established in 2021 wherein potential initial public offering (IPO) applicants would undergo one-on-one sessions with the PSE to discuss its growth and listing roadmap. As part of LEAP, participants can get free access to reference materials that they may use to assess if their company is ready to go public. The PSE also assists these companies by connecting them with IPO advisers and professionals who can help them in preparation for their IPO. The PSE aims to encourage more companies to list by easing the barriers of entry through this free program offered to potential issuers.

As of March 12, 2026, eight companies enrolled in the program are seriously considering to list within the next two years, comprising of four Main Board and four SME Board applicants. These companies are at various stages of IPO readiness, with five deemed ready to go public within the next 12 months.

Corporate Connect

Corporate Connect is a collaborative campaign between the PSE, partner advisors, and key government and business groups which aims to spark interest in IPO listings among SMEs and other companies which are ready to go public.

On March 27, 2025, the PSE, in partnership with First Metro Investment Corporation, hosted a session titled “Your Journey to Higher Value” attended by Metrobank’s select corporate banking clients at Manila House Taguig. The PSE held the second Corporate Connect event last June 20, 2025, in partnership with Straton Management for business owners and CEOs of companies considering to go public in Cebu City.

C Suite Conversations

C-suite Conversations is designed to build confidence and inspire LEAP-enrolled companies through direct engagement with a selected listed company champion.

The PSE hosted the maiden edition of “Executive Insights: A CEO Dialogue on Going Public” on October 20, 2025 at the PSE Museum. D&L Industries, Inc. (DNL) President and CEO Alvin D. Lao headlined the program as he spoke about the company’s history and how becoming a publicly listed company boosted DNL’s transformation into one of the country’s leading B2B manufacturing partners operating across diverse supply chains. He also addressed questions from LEAP clients ranging from broaching the idea of doing an initial public offering (IPO) to family members involved in the family business, the timing to do an IPO, to handling share price fluctuations. C-suite executives of 17 private companies under PSE LEAP attended the event.

STAR Investor Day

The PSE held three runs of the PSE STAR (Strengthening Access and Reach): Investor Day in 2025. The first quarter run was held on May 15 to 16; the second run was held on August 19 to 20; while the final run for the year was held on November 13 to 14, 2025. Publicly listed companies (PLCs) presented their financial results before an audience comprised of investment professionals, portfolio managers, stock market analysts, and investors. Aside from their income performance, executives from the featured PLCs discussed corporate developments and short to mid-term plans, while also addressing questions from participants. Meanwhile, Bloomberg analysts discussed their outlook on the economy and select sectors.

PSE STAR was co-hosted by Bloomberg LP, with the Fund Managers Association of the Philippines as partners. There were a total of 35 PLCs which participated in the 2025 PSE STAR series.

Invest PH 2025

The PSE hosted its first-ever investor conference dubbed InvestPH last March 19 to 21, 2025 in Taguig City. Over 200 foreign and local institutional investors and executives of PLCs attended the event.

InvestPH is a platform to showcase the Philippines as a prime investment destination in the region. It aims to highlight the robust potential and favorable investment landscape that the country has to offer, and update investors about important reforms that will boost the capital market.

The plenary session on March 19, 2025 provided attendees access to informative discussions on the economy, financial and capital markets, and key industries. The morning sessions featured prominent government officials, policymakers and regulators who talked about innovative macroeconomic policies and initiatives to generate more investments in the country. Meanwhile, there was a three-panel discussion in the afternoon focusing on energy, logistics and infrastructure, and high-growth opportunities in emerging markets. On all three days, institutional investors had one-on-one meetings with participating PLCs to explore investment opportunities.

Investor Relations (IR) Workshop

A series of hybrid workshops, which commenced in 2022 and jointly hosted by the PSE and Bloomberg L.P., seeks to provide the investor relations community a platform for networking and dialogue on strategies to enhance stakeholder value and explore emerging industry trends.

On August 6, 2025, PSE hosted a workshop called "Shaping Inclusive Markets Through Investor Relations," which delved into building confidence among IR professionals by providing them practical tools to help manage challenging investor and media interactions. This workshop was attended by 34 participants, 12 of whom were PSE-listed companies.

PSE Exchange Visits

An Exchange Visit is an on-site initiative designed for both academic institutions and corporate organizations, featuring a guided tour of the PSE Museum, PSE Library, and PSE Ceremonial Hall. The visit concludes with a brief seminar on personal finance and stock market fundamentals, which includes a presentation by a guest stockbroker. The primary objective of the program is to educate participants about the capital markets.

In 2025, a total of 43 Exchange Visits were conducted, attracting 1,526 attendees, representing a significant increase from the 24 visits and 896 participants recorded in 2024. The program continues to provide students, professionals, and other stakeholders with valuable exposure to the Philippine capital markets and the role of the PSE in promoting investor education.

PSE Academy

The PSE Academy is a comprehensive, interactive, web-based platform designed to enhance investor education for market participants, equity investors, and the public. Serving as PSE's primary investor education platform, the PSE Academy caters to individuals with varying levels of knowledge and experience in stock trading and investing.

Key features of the PSE Academy include an E-Learning section offering video and reading materials ranging from beginner to advanced topics, an events calendar where users can register for upcoming market education activities, and an investment calculator that allows users to compute capital gains, transaction costs, and other financial figures.

Additionally, the website provides access to PSE products and services, a glossary of stock market terms, and the PSE library collection. Through the "Ask a Librarian" feature, users may request for library visits or specific materials, while exchange visits may also be booked directly through the platform.

PSE is also developing two new features for the website: a self-paced online course consisting of 18 episodes covering basic to advanced investing topics, as well as the PSE Stock Trading Game, a gamified simulation designed to introduce new investors to stock trading concepts. Both features are expected to be launched in 2026, further expanding the Academy's educational offerings. As of end-2025, the PSE Academy recorded 1,241 registered users.

Webinars

The PSE continues to enhance the stock market knowledge of both prospective and current investors through a series of free webinars designed to promote financial literacy and investor education. In 2025, the PSE organized six webinars, engaging 562 participants. These sessions covered a range of topics including technical analysis, capital market fundamentals, and investing strategies. Several webinars also introduced participants to upcoming initiatives such as the PSE Academy Stock Trading Game, which aims to provide a gamified learning experience for aspiring investors. These include:

Participation in Investment Literacy Fairs

In 2025, the PSE actively participated in several investment literacy fairs in collaboration with government agencies and partner organizations to further promote investor education and financial awareness. These events provided opportunities to engage participants through interactive games and educational materials focused on responsible investing and capital market participation. The PSE joined four investment literacy fairs, generating a total of 431 sign-ups for its educational programs and initiatives. These include:

Fair	Date	Number of Sign-ups
BSP Economic and Financial Learning Program (EFLP) Investment Fair	July 31-August 1, 2025	137
Inter-Agency Council on Migrant Workers and Overseas Filipinos (IAC-MOF) Migrant Fair in Baguio City	September 30, 2025	18

Inter-Agency Council on Migrant Workers and Overseas Filipinos (IAC-MOF) Migrant Fair in Makati City	December 18, 2025	97
Total Number of Participants		431

Through its participation in these fairs, the PSE continues to expand its reach and strengthen partnerships with institutions that advocate financial literacy and responsible investing.

Ring the Bell for Financial Literacy

Last October 8, 2025, the PSE reaffirmed its commitment to investor education by participating in the global “Ring the Bell for Financial Literacy” initiative of the World Federation of Exchanges (WFE), held in support of World Investor Week, an advocacy program of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO). Through this annual activity, stock exchanges worldwide highlight the importance of investor education and protection in strengthening capital markets.

During the event, PSE officers and employees participated in a bell-ringing ceremony to underscore the Exchange’s commitment to promoting financial literacy and investor protection.

Additionally, the PSE also launched the PSE Academy Facebook Community during the event. It serves as a dedicated online space where investors and aspiring market participants can engage with educational content, share insights, and stay informed about upcoming market education programs. The community aims to foster greater interaction among individuals interested in learning more about stock market investing.

Collaboration with the Department of Migrant Workers

Recognizing the unique financial needs of Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs) and their families, the PSE partnered with the Department of Migrant Workers (DMW) to implement a Financial Education Program designed to equip OFWs with the knowledge necessary to make sound financial decisions and explore investment opportunities in the Philippine capital markets. The collaboration is anchored on an MOU signed on February 29, 2024, which aims to strengthen financial literacy initiatives for OFWs and support their long-term financial security and reintegration.

As part of this partnership, PSE hosted an educational tour and cocktails reception on December 11, 2025 for participants of the 3rd Linangin ang Kakayahan sa Kabuhayan Award (LIKHA) Business Plan Competition, an initiative under the DMW's Likha Global program. The activity brought together 38 OFW finalists and participants, who were flown in by DMW to take part in learning sessions and institutional visits that aim to expose them to organizations supporting entrepreneurship, financial literacy, and investor protection.

The event also provided an opportunity for the PSE to introduce its programs and services to OFWs, highlighting how the capital markets can serve as a platform for financial planning and investment. In addition, 21 DMW executives and employees attended the activity, which concluded with a networking reception aimed at fostering collaboration and celebrating the contributions of overseas Filipinos to the Philippine economy.

Collaboration with the Commission on Filipinos Overseas

The PSE entered into a new partnership with the Commission on Filipinos Overseas (CFO) to promote financial literacy and encourage Overseas Filipinos (OFs) to participate in the Philippine capital markets. The collaboration was formalized through an MOU signing on June 17, 2025, coinciding with the 45th anniversary of the CFO. This collaboration particularly aims to implement programs that will empower OFs, including permanent residents abroad and their immediate family members to become more financially informed and actively engage in investing in the Philippine stock market. The initiative supports the PSE's broader objective of expanding investor participation among Filipinos across the globe.

The partnership was officially launched through an on-site financial literacy seminar for CFO employees on August 4, 2025, which was attended by 52 participants. To further expand the program's reach, the PSE also collaborated with CFO's Peso Sense Team in producing joint social media content, which was published on the CFO Peso Sense Facebook Page.

The partnership was also supported through various media engagements aimed at raising awareness about stock market investing among OFs. PSE's Capital Markets Development Division (CMDD) Head represented the Exchange in a Radyo Pilipinas interview last August 26, 2025 entitled "Investing in the Homeland: How Filipinos Can Participate in the Philippine Stock Market." Additionally, PSE President and CEO Ramon S. Monzon joined CFO Chairman Secretary Dante "Klink" Ang II in a public affairs program interview last September 19, 2025, where they discussed the following: PSE's initiatives to encourage OFs to invest in the Philippines, the collaboration between PSE and CFO, and the Exchange's future direction.

As part of the partnership's investor education initiatives, the PSE also collaborated with CFO and COL Financial Group, Inc. (COL) in organizing a three-month stock trading tournament in 2026 aimed at strengthening the integration of financial education in the K to 12 Basic Education Curriculum, including among Philippine School Overseas (PSO) students. To prepare participants, three pre-tournament webinars were conducted from October to December 2025. They covered an overview of the PSE, a walkthrough of the stock trading game platform and website, and the mechanics of the competition.

Collaboration with San Beda University

The PSE entered into a partnership with San Beda University (SBU) to strengthen capital market education among students and develop future professionals in the Philippine financial industry. The collaboration was formalized through the signing of an MOU on July 15, 2025 at SBU's main campus in Manila, involving SBU's Departments of Accountancy, Economics and Public Policy, as well as Financial Management.

Through this partnership, PSE and SBU aim to advance financial literacy and deepen students' understanding of the Philippine capital markets through seminars, workshops, and other learning initiatives that integrate real-world capital market knowledge into academic programs. The collaboration also seeks to equip students with practical financial skills and encourage greater awareness of investing even before they enter the workforce.

As part of this initiative, the PSE conducted a webinar for SBU students entitled "Bulls, Bears, and Bedans: Your Guide to the Basics of the Stock Market" on October 15, 2025. The session was attended by 157 participants, including students from the following organizations: San Beda Junior Philippine Institute of Accountants (SBU-JPIA) for accountancy majors, San Beda Junior Financial Management Association (SBU-JFINMA) for finance students, and the San Beda Economics Society (SBES) for Economics majors. It introduced the participants to fundamental stock market concepts and investment principles.

Certified Securities Specialist Course

The Certified Securities Specialist Course (CSSC) is a flagship initiative of the PSE designed to provide continuing education for market participants and individuals aspiring to pursue careers in the capital markets. The program covers key topics such as capital markets, fundamental analysis, valuation techniques, and portfolio management, equipping participants with both theoretical knowledge and practical insights into the stock market.

In 2025, the PSE conferred the title "Certified Securities Specialist" to 37 successful participants, an increase from the 28 graduates recorded in 2024. These graduates came from two program runs conducted in partnership with two academic institutions: 26 graduates from the 16th run in partnership with the Ateneo De Manila University Graduate School of Business - Center for Continuing Education (Ateneo CCE) and 11 graduates from the 7th run in partnership with the De La Salle - College of Saint Benilde School of Professional and Continuing Education (DLS-CSB SPaCE).

The program continues to strengthen the pool of professionals with specialized knowledge in the Philippine capital markets.

PSE's Growing Online Community

The PSE continues to promote financial literacy and investor awareness through its various social media platforms, which serve as accessible channels for disseminating market updates, educational content, and announcements on PSE initiatives.

As of end-2025, the PSE's online community continued to grow across multiple platforms. Facebook followers increased to 410,562 from 408,000 in 2024, while Instagram followers rose to 12,877 from 11,600, reflecting sustained growth in audience engagement. Meanwhile, TikTok saw significant expansion, increasing to 2,301 followers from only 300 the previous year, highlighting the platform's growing role in reaching younger audiences.

Additionally, the newly launched PSE Academy Facebook Community, recorded 454 members, creating a dedicated space for users to engage with educational content and discussions related to investing.

PSE Corner

Published by the Daily Tribune every Monday, PSE Corner includes a brief article highlighting one of the PSE's activities or initiatives, the previous week's stock market performance and key corporate disclosures, as well as earnings results and dividend information. In 2025, 50 PSE Corner issues were printed. The first edition of PSE Corner was published on December 4, 2023.

PSE Viber Channel

The PSE Viber channel was launched in October 2024 during PSE's Ring the Bell for Financial Literacy ceremony. It complements existing social media accounts of the PSE for information dissemination. Among the materials posted on the channel include index updates and other market data, select corporate disclosures, PSE news releases, and relevant PSE announcements and advisories. In 2025, PSE recorded over 1,700 subscribers for its Viber channel.

Ongoing Plans and Programs for 2026

The Exchange's 2024 to 2026 Strategic Plan, which aims to increase market liquidity, advance regional competitiveness, and enhance its digital infrastructure, is entering its final year, marking a pivotal phase in PSE's multi-year transformation. As the Plan progresses, PSE will continue to work closely with regulators, strategic partners, and market stakeholders to broaden investor participation and strengthen market infrastructure.

A key milestone under the Strategic Plan was PSE's acquisition of PDSHC, the holding company of the Philippine Dealing & Exchange Corp. (PDEX) and the Philippine Depository & Trust Corp. (PDTC). As of February 4, 2026, PSE has raised its beneficial ownership in PDSHC to 94.55%, following a series of negotiations PDSHC shareholders. In 2026, PSE will continue to actively pursue the acquisition of the remaining shares and move forward with an integration plan.

In the near term, PSE will prioritize the phased integration of the technology systems, network and applications of the Exchange and its newly acquired subsidiaries. This approach is designed to mitigate potential operational and systemic risks to both the bond and equity markets, while ensuring continuity of critical functions.

The Exchange will host its second “Invest PH” conference from March 17 to 19, 2026. The event will showcase the Philippines as a prime investment destination by bringing together government leaders, listed companies, and domestic and international investors for in-depth discussions on market developments, reforms, and investment opportunities.

PSE is also continuing its collaboration with Nasdaq to upgrade its trading platform to Nasdaq Eqlipse Trading. The upgrade is expected to modernize and standardize the Exchange’s core trading infrastructure, strengthening platform capabilities, application architecture, APIs, and product integration. The modular design of Nasdaq Eqlipse Trading allows the seamless integration of complementary functionalities such as pre-trade risk, advanced options pricing, and index calculations with a flexible deployment model that reduces operational complexity and supports cloud adoption.

Alongside enhancements to its core trading infrastructure, the PSE is likewise focused on strengthening the market mechanisms that support more sophisticated trading strategies. The PSE is currently working with the SEC and the Bureau of Internal Revenue to streamline the registration process for MSLAs.

In parallel, the PSE is advancing regulatory reforms to broaden SBL market participation, particularly among foreign investors. The Exchange conducted a public consultation, which concluded last February 18, proposing amendments to the PSE SBL Rules. Key proposals include allowing an SEC-registered onshore lending agent to facilitate the Philippine leg of SBL transactions between foreign lenders and foreign borrowers involving PSE-listed securities, thereby removing the requirement for offshore lending agents to separately register in the Philippines. The consultation paper likewise proposes streamlined reporting requirements for SBL participants. Comments received are currently being consolidated and will be formally submitted to the SEC for approval.

In response to the rapid rise of artificial intelligence and its growing influence on global capital markets, the PSE initiated PSE BRIDGE or Building Relationships & Innovation for Digital Growth and Empowerment with its first session entitled Advancing Corporate Resilience Through AI and Technology. The event was held in partnership with Amazon Web Services on December 3, 2025 and was attended by a total of 94 participants with representatives from 32 publicly listed companies across 14 different industries. The forum highlighted the strategic implications of artificial intelligence, cloud technology, and digital transformation in capital markets, with discussions on the application of AI in trading operations, risk management, compliance, and security. Through the PSE BRIDGE initiative, the Exchange continues to provide a platform for dialogue and knowledge sharing on emerging technologies relevant to listed companies and the broader capital market.

To support the PSE’s own generative AI adoption initiatives, the Exchange engaged with Thinking Machines Data Science, Inc. to hold an Executive Enablement Workshop on February 26 and 27, 2026. A total of 26 combined PSE and PDSHC employees attended the event, primarily composed of management and executives. The workshop was designed to equip attendees with practical insights into generative AI. Topics included prompt engineering, research applications, and the evaluation of strategic AI use cases relevant to the operations of the organization. Through expert-led discussion and hands-on activities, the workshop aimed to build awareness of AI capabilities and applications, enabling participants to maximize the value of AI tools and identify opportunities to build competitive advantages.

In terms of enhancing its digital infrastructure, the PSE is strengthening its data architecture and establishing a robust data governance framework. These efforts aim to enhance data management, improve decision-making, and support the growing demand for real-time, high-quality market information. Aligned with this initiative, the Exchange is currently conducting a Data Strategy Assessment with AWS Professional Services that aims to unify and modernize critical market data infrastructure across the different systems within PSE, PDSHC, and the SCCP.

This engagement will begin with an assessment of current data systems and workflows to establish a clear understanding of the current data landscape across the involved organizations. This will be followed by the development of a strategic data framework which includes a target-state data architecture and a data governance model. A roadmap will be produced, translating the strategy into prioritized initiatives to achieve the target-state. Through this initiative, the Exchange is working towards building a cohesive and scalable data foundation by unifying the data from these systems in a data lake which will support analytics, business intelligence, and the development of data-driven products and services. This will be further realized in the 2nd Phase of the engagement, the Data Strategy Enablement, which serves as a starting point in the development of analytics and data platform capabilities guided by the target-state architecture.

To further diversify the PSE's product and service portfolio, the PSE plans to introduce Global Philippine Depositary Receipts (GPDRs) and derivative products in the medium term. The PSE submitted its proposed regulations to the SEC's Markets and Securities Regulation Department last January 2025, incorporating the feedback received from the public and various interested stakeholders. The PSE is working with potential proponent and targets to have a ready GPDR issuer by the second half of 2026.

The PSE is also working on establishing a derivatives market with index futures as its first product. The PSE's rules for derivatives are slated to be finalized in the second half of 2026. Meanwhile, the PSE is also set to amend some of its regulations to revitalize the market. This includes the ETF rules, market making rules, board lot system, as well as the sponsor model regulations.

Regulatory Updates

Implementing Rules and Regulations of the Philippine Mineral Reporting Code 2020 Edition

The Implementing Rules and Regulations of the 2020 PMRC took effect on January 13, 2025.

The 2020 PMRC IRR supersedes the 2007 IRR and incorporates, among others, the following salient provisions:

1. Annual reporting of any Exploration Results, Exploration Targets, Mineral Resources, and Mineral Reserves, which must be included in the Annual Report (SEC Form 17-A);

2. Quarterly reporting of any Exploration Results, which must be included in the Quarterly Report (SEC Form 17-Q);

3. Disclosure on environmental, social and governance (ESG) considerations, which may be voluntarily included in the Technical Reports until the company is mandatorily required to submit sustainability reports using a reporting framework in accordance with IFRS S1, General Requirements for Disclosure of Sustainability-related Financial Information, IFRS S2, Climate-related Disclosures, and any future sustainability standards to be adopted in the Philippines by the SEC; and

4. Only Public Reports that comply with the reporting standards under the PMRC 2020 and the guidelines under the PMRC 2020 IRR shall be accepted by the Exchange for listing and/or disclosure purposes.

Launch of PSE's Guidance Document on Sustainability Reporting

On January 14, 2025, PSE released PSE's guidance document on sustainability reporting entitled ESG 101: A reporting guidebook. It was developed with reference to the 2015 Model Guidance on Reporting ESG Information to Investors of the United Nations Sustainable Stock Exchanges Initiative. This guidance document has updated sustainability reporting regulations, data, and best practices that are relevant to Philippine listed companies.

This guidance document is intended to serve as a sufficient starting point for companies seeking to enhance their sustainability reporting capabilities. This should be used alongside globally recognized reporting frameworks and standards and should not replace any sustainability-related legislation and rules issued by legislators and regulators.

Reduction of Stock Transaction Tax

Under Section 17 of Republic Act No. 12214, also known as the "Capital Markets Efficiency Promotion Act" or "CMEPA", which took effect on July 1, 2025, the stock transaction tax ("STT") was decreased from six-tenths of one percent (6/10 of 1%) to one-tenths of one percent (1/10 of 1%) of the gross selling price or gross value in money of the shares of stock sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed.

Declassification of Class "A" and Class "B" Shares

On August 7, 2025, SEC issued Memorandum Circular No. 10, Series of 2025 ("SEC MC 10-2025") entitled "Repeal of the Rules Allowing the Trading of "B" Shares on the Regular Board and Requiring Buyers to Accept Either "B" Or "A" Certificates".

Under the SEC MC 10-2025, publicly listed companies with common shares classified as Class "A" and Class "B" have until August 9, 2026 to amend their respective Articles of Incorporation to reflect the declassification of their shares. During the 1-year period to amend the AOI, buyers on the regular board shall accept the delivery of the specific class of shares that they have purchased and paid for, and shall not be compelled to receive an alternative class of shares.

SEC MC 10-2025 took effect on August 9, 2025.

Amendments to the Revised Trading Rules

On August 20, 2025, the PSE announced the implementation of the amendments to Section 2(a), Article VIII of the Revised Trading Rules.

The trigger for market-wide halt was changed from inability of at least 1/3 of the trading participants (TPs) to access the trading system to inability of TPs accounting for more than fifty percent (50%) of the average daily trading value (exclusive of block sales) for the six (6) calendar months preceding the date of determination to access the trading system, directly or through their correspondent TP, due solely to (i) trading system problems attributable to Exchange system issues, or (ii) natural disasters or unforeseen and unavoidable events beyond the control of PSE or TPs.

All TPs were also required to have a Correspondent TP as a business continuity requirement. Part XXI of the Implementing Guidelines of the Revised Trading Rules, as amended, sets out the guidelines for selection and engagement of a Correspondent TP.

Guidelines on Natural Disasters or Extraordinary Circumstances

The new guidelines give the Exchange the discretion to halt, suspend, or cancel a scheduled Trading Day in the event of natural disasters or extraordinary circumstances such as fire, earthquake, eruption, terrorist attack, or analogous circumstances, and the Exchange is unable to implement its Business Continuity Plan.

Compliance

Compliance with Data Privacy Act of 2012

The PSE's Data Protection Officer conducted departmental privacy impact assessments in accordance with the PSE's Data Privacy Manual. This annual exercise ensures that the PSE keeps up-to-date records pertaining to its data processing systems and data mapping registry, verifies the absence or existence of personal data security incidents and breaches which are reported to the National Privacy Commission, as applicable, and identifies areas for improvement of the PSE's data protection measures.

In addition, the NPC Seal of Registration, valid until July 28, 2026, was displayed prominently at the main entrance of the PSE Tower and uploaded across the PSE's online platforms such as the market and corporate portals of the PSE website, PSE Electronic Disclosure Generation Technology (PSE EDGE), PSE Academy, PSE Electronic Allocation System (PSE EASy), and PSE Equities Information Platform (PSE EQUIP).

Item 7. Financial Statements

The Statement of Management's Responsibility for Financial Statements, the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements, and the Audited Parent Financial Statements of the PSE as of December 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 are attached hereto as Annexes "A," "B," and "C," respectively.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure/Independent Public Accountant

The external auditor of the PSE is the accounting firm of Sycip, Gorres, Velayo & Co. (SGV & Co.) The engagement of SGV & Co. as external auditor was approved during the Annual Stockholders' Meeting on 12 July 2025. Mr. Sherwin V. Yason is currently the Engagement Partner. The appointment of the external auditor and the engagement partner is consistent with SRC Rule 68. The engagement partner or signing partner is rotated after every seven (7) years of engagement. A two-year cooling-off period is observed in the re-engagement of the same signing partner.

The PSE has not had any disagreements on accounting and financial disclosures with SGV & Co. during their engagement in 2025.

No change in control of the PSE has occurred since the beginning of the fiscal year.

(e) Security Ownership of Foreigners

As of 31 March 2026, 10,220,461 shares, which is equivalent to 12.45% of the total outstanding stock, are owned by foreigners.

Item 12. Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The PSE has not had any transaction in which any director, executive officer or stockholder or a member of the immediate family of the foregoing persons had a direct or indirect interest during the last two years except the transaction fees and other fees collected from trading participants-stockholders. A detailed explanation of these transaction fees is discussed in Note 30 of the Audited Financial Statements.

IV. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Item 13. Corporate Governance Initiatives

Corporate Governance and Sustainability Initiatives for 2025

The PSE, in its role as the regulator of the capital market and as a listed company, aims to lead companies toward a sustainable, resilient, and inclusive capital market.

Net Zero Target Setting

In December of 2023, the PSE became the third Asian exchange to commit to, and become a member of, the Glasgow Financial Alliance for Net Zero (“GFANZ”) and the Net Zero Financial Service Providers Alliance (NZFSPA). Early in 2025, the PSE published its inaugural NZFSPA Progress Report outlining its net zero targets and achievements, including the roadmap to accomplish time-bound targets. The net zero target for Scope 1, 2, and 3 is to reduce the PSE’s absolute greenhouse gas footprint by 54.6% by 2033, from a 2023 baseline year.

ESG 101: A Reporting Guidebook

The PSE, in its dual role as a listed company and a self-regulatory organization, recognizes that Philippine corporates need guidance when it comes to sustainability disclosures. A strategic initiative of the PSE was to publish a guidance document on sustainability reporting and disclosures. For this guidance material, the PSE closely collaborated with the United Nations Sustainable Stock Exchanges (UN SSE) Initiative to create a guidebook that is credible, data-driven, and true to the Philippine business context. This is in line with the PSE’s commitment to build a sustainable capital market.

ASEAN Interconnected Sustainability Ecosystem Request for Information

The PSE, along with its peer exchanges in ASEAN (SGX Group, Bursa Malaysia, Indonesia Stock Exchange, and the Stock Exchange of Thailand), issued a Request for Information in February 2025 in relation to the envisioned Interconnected Sustainability Ecosystem. This initiative aims to build a Centralized Sustainability Data Infrastructure allowing users to access material sustainability information with ease. The initiative’s second objective is to build a Digital Marketplace for Technology-based Sustainability Solutions. This will allow over 4,000 public listed companies (PLCs) and all their suppliers to access plug-and-play or modular products, enhance reporting processes, and connect with solution providers across Southeast Asia.

The ESG Working Group of the ASEAN Exchanges held a briefing for interested solution providers, credit bureaus, technology firms, information vendors, and consultants at the 38th ASEAN Exchanges CEOs Meeting.

This project is ongoing.

2025 Bell Ringing for Gender Equality

On March 7, 2025, the PSE joined 124 member-organizations of the World Federation of Exchanges (“WFE”) in raising awareness on the importance of gender equality and women empowerment through the annual Ring the Bell for Gender Equality program, organized by the WFE, UN SSE, UN Global Compact, and IFC. Broadcast journalist Karen Davila, who is also UN Women Philippines’ National Goodwill Ambassador, joined PSE officers in the bell ringing event. This year marks the fifth anniversary of the PSE’s signing of the Statement of Support for the Women’s Empowerment Principles (WEPs), which provides guidance to businesses on how to advance gender equality and women’s empowerment.

IFRS Training

The PSE organized a capacity-building webinar that tackled how companies can apply the IFRS Sustainability Disclosure Standards into their reporting practices. This webinar, which took place on May 29, 2025, was developed to help companies report in accordance with the IFRS S1 (Sustainability-related Financial Disclosures) and IFRS S2 (Climate-related Disclosures), providing sample disclosures from other companies from the Philippines and around the world. The training was organized in partnership with the United Nations Sustainable Stock Exchanges (UN SSE) Initiative.

Launch of the Model Guidance on Sustainability for SMEs

In 2024, the PSE was appointed as Co-Chair for a UN SSE Advisory Group on the development of a model guidance document on SMEs’ adoption of sustainable business practices. On June 17, 2025, the UN SSE formally launched the guidance document. At the launch, PSE President and CEO, Ramon S. Monzon, gave the opening remarks. The model guidance follows the UN SSE’s four-step process for SMEs to integrate sustainability into their businesses: Prepare, Align, Implement, and Communicate.

The advisory group’s co-chair was the Amman Stock Exchange, and the group was composed of 35 organizations, most of which were stock exchanges.

Participation in a Seminar on Carbon Emissions Among Companies in the Extractive Industries

The PSE participated in a knowledge-sharing session organized by the Department of Finance through the Philippine Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (PH-EITI). The seminar, entitled Carbon Clarity: Carbon Emissions Reporting in the Extractive Sector, discussed the need for sustainable business practices among companies operating within the mining and oil and gas sectors in the Philippines. PSE Chief Operating Officer, Atty. Roel A. Refran, discussed sustainability reporting regulations in the Philippines, including the 2020 Philippine Mineral Reporting Code (PMRC) and its Implementing Rules and Regulations. The PMRC and its IRR require covered companies to disclose specified sustainability issues in a Technical Report, subject to a materiality assessment, with the sign-off of an Accredited Competent Person (ACP).

Tree Nurturing Program

In an effort to lead by example and to offset operational carbon emissions, employees of the PSE Group, including employees of PDEX and PDTC, planted 1,000 trees at the UP Laguna Quezon Land Grant in Siniloan, Laguna. The program was undertaken in partnership with Fostering Education & Environment for Development, Inc. (FEED). This year's tree planting program saw an improvement from previous years through the planting of around 300 trees. On top of striving for efficiency in its operations, the PSE will aim to plant more trees over the coming years and explore more nature-based solutions to the climate crisis.

UN SSE Workshop on Gender Equality

On July 2 and 4, 2025, the PSE collaborated with the United Nations Sustainable Stock Exchanges Initiative (UN SSE) to offer a training on gender equality for the benefit of publicly listed companies in the Philippines. The two-day workshop covered challenges in gender equality, the business risks associated with sectoral discrimination, and the benefits of systemic inclusivity in our organizations. At the workshop, the PSE featured the best practices of some organizations in implementing gender-inclusive policies. The speakers included representatives of UN SSE, the Luxembourg Green Exchange, EDGE Certification Foundation, and Bloomberg. Respectively, the guest speakers spoke on gender-lens investing, gender standards and certifications, gender bonds, and gender equality scoring.

Completion of the PSE's Materiality Assessment

In the third quarter of 2025, the PSE completed its Materiality Assessment. The PSE undertook this study to determine which sustainability issues are most relevant to the Exchange and its stakeholders, given its business model and role in the economy. The PSE used a double materiality approach where both financial materiality and impact materiality of various sustainability issues were considered. The PSE's study concluded with a total of 28 material sustainability topics, with varying priority tiers, where two (2) issues fall under Environmental, 11 fall under Social, and 15 fall under Governance.

ESG Score Seminar with S&P Global

On October 2, 2025, S&P Global held its inaugural ESG Score Seminar in the Philippines in partnership with the PSE at The Westin Manila. The seminar, entitled "Sustainability Thought Leadership: The Business Case for Corporate Sustainability," gathered representatives from listed companies to deepen their understanding of ESG scoring methodologies, investor expectations, and the financial implications of sustainability performance. PSE President and CEO, Ramon S. Monzon, emphasized the increasing relevance of ESG assessments and encouraged issuers to evaluate their transition pathways toward a low-carbon economy as global sustainability standards continue to evolve. The seminar demonstrated how ESG performance influences investor confidence and corporate value creation.

PCCI Corporate Governance Training

PSE Directors and Management Committee attended a virtual corporate governance training organized by the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and Industry (PCCI) on October 8, 2025. The session covered topics including net zero commitments, climate action, risk and compliance, and boards responsibilities and AI.

PICPA Sustainability Summit

At the Philippine Institute of Certified Public Accountants (PICPA) Sustainability Summit held on October 13, 2025, COO Atty. Roel A. Refran discussed key developments in sustainable finance and reporting in the Philippines. He covered regulatory advancements, the Philippine Green Equity Label, the evolving sustainability reporting landscape, and the PSE's own sustainability journey, including its net zero commitments. This engagement showed the critical role of accounting professionals and assurance providers in enhancing the credibility and reliability of sustainability disclosures.

Mining Philippines Conference

At the Mining Philippines Conference on October 23, 2025, COO Atty. Roel A. Refran spoke about integrating sustainability considerations into the mining sector's regulatory and reporting frameworks. He emphasized the importance of ESG integration in technical reporting, alignment with the 2020 Philippine Mineral Reporting Code (PMRC) and its implementing rules and regulations, and the growing mandate for sustainability disclosures among listed mining companies. This discussion highlighted the need for transparent impact reporting to strengthen investor confidence and industry accountability.

Golden Arrow Awards

On October 23, 2025, the PSE received three (3) Golden Arrows at the Golden Arrow Awards organized by the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD). This recognition reflects the PSE's adherence to high standards of corporate governance, transparency, and board effectiveness, reinforcing its role as a regulator in the Philippine capital market.

PSE-MSCI Webinar on ISSB and Climate Disclosure

In response to the adoption of ISSB standards in the Philippines, the PSE and MSCI hosted a technical webinar on October 28, 2025, to guide listed companies in the climate disclosure requirements of ISSB. The session provided an overview of IFRS S1 and IFRS S2 standards and discussed climate-related disclosure requirements, data considerations, and transition planning tools. The webinar was particularly timely following the issuance of draft sustainability reporting guidelines by the referencing ISSB standards. Through this initiative, the PSE supported issuers in strengthening their sustainability reporting and aligning internal processes with emerging regulatory requirements.

Business within Boundaries: A Multi-Stakeholder and Systems Approach

The PSE participated in the "Business within Boundaries" forum organized by Ateneo Institute of Sustainability (AIS), ASEAN University Network on Ecological Education and Culture (AUN-EEC), and Australian National University (ANU) on November 3, 2025. The forum explored the Planetary Boundaries framework, regulatory developments in sustainability reporting, and sustainability-related bond principles and standards. Participation in this multi-stakeholder dialogue enabled PSE to engage with academic and regional thought leaders on systems-based approaches to sustainable development and capital market transformation.

Ring the Bell for Climate

The PSE joined the global Ring the Bell for Climate campaign on November 11, 2025, in parallel with COP 30. The campaign emphasizes the role of stock exchanges in mobilizing capital to address climate change and promote sustainable development. During the ceremony, President and CEO Ramon S. Monzon, highlighted sustainable finance as a powerful tool for change and encouraged Philippine companies to raise capital through equities and bonds to fund green activities.

ISSB Roundtable Discussion

On November 12, 2025, the PSE convened a roundtable discussion among 20 Tier 1 listed companies to assess readiness for ISSB adoption in anticipation of mandatory reporting requirements in 2026 under Philippine Financial Reporting Standards. Moderated by COO Atty. Roel A. Refran, the discussion enabled participants to share their sustainability reporting journeys, including challenges in emissions measurement, data collection systems, governance oversight, and transition planning. The dialogue facilitated peer learning and provided the PSE with valuable insights to guide future capacity-building initiatives as the market transitions toward globally aligned sustainability disclosures.

UN Women WEPs Forum and Asia-Pacific Sustainable Finance Lab

The PSE participated in the UN Women - Women Empowerment Principles (WEPs) Forum on November 18-19, 2025, where UN Women formally announced the launch of the Asia-Pacific Sustainable Finance Lab in Kuala Lumpur. PSE joined other regional exchanges in signing a statement of support to advance gender equality in capital markets. The initiative convenes stock exchanges and securities regulators to accelerate gender-responsive practices and integrate women's empowerment considerations into sustainable finance instruments and gender equality strategies. The PSE's participation reflects its commitment to promoting inclusive capital market development.

Mangrove and Coral Planting and Coastal Cleanup

The PSE conducted a corporate social responsibility (CSR) activity on November 23, 2025, in partnership with Fostering Education and Environment for Development, Inc. (FEED) in San Juan, La Union. Employees from the PSE and its subsidiaries, CMIC and Premier, planted 100 mangroves along the banks of the Baroro River and participated in coral propagation to support reef restoration. The program also included a coastal cleanup aimed at addressing plastic waste pollution that threatens marine ecosystems. This initiative contributes to biodiversity conservation, shoreline protection, and community environmental stewardship, while reinforcing employee engagement in sustainability initiatives aligned with the Exchange's environmental commitments.

UN SSE Model Guidance on Modern Forms of Slavery

On November 24, 2025, UN Sustainable Stock Exchanges (SSE) published its Model Guidance on Modern Forms of Slavery. The PSE participated in contributing to the development of the guidance, which provides exchanges with frameworks for addressing human rights risks and modern slavery considerations in company disclosures. This engagement demonstrates the PSE's commitment to advancing not only climate-related governance but also broader social sustainability dimensions within capital markets.

Engagement with British Expertise International

PSE President and CEO Ramon Monzon and COO Atty. Roel A. Refran visited British Expertise International in London, United Kingdom, to discuss recent developments in the Philippine capital market, particularly in advancing ESG-linked products and strengthening market infrastructure for sustainable finance. The meeting also explored opportunities to enhance foreign investor participation in ESG-focused investments.

Statement of Compliance with PSE's Manual on Corporate Governance

The PSE substantially adopted the provisions of its Manual on Corporate Governance for the calendar year ending 31 December 2025. A copy of the Statement of Compliance with the PSE's Manual on Corporate Governance dated 19 January 2026 is attached hereto as Annex "E."
